

Scholarships and Grants tips for Technical Communication

Tips for applying for scholarships

1. Make a resume + list of personal references and update them occasionally
2. If you'll need recommendation letters, give references plenty of time, a copy of your resume, and statement of goals/interests
3. Keep track of program details (deadlines, specific info requests)
4. Write your own essays!
5. Proofread!!

UCF scholarships

1. English Department: <https://english.cah.ucf.edu/scholarships>
  - Melissa Pellegrin Memorial Scholarship (TC Undergrad/Grad)
  - Frances R. Lefkowitz Endowed Scholarship (Undergrad/Grad)
  - Jean C. Combs Scholarship (Undergrad)
  - Promising Scholar Awards (Undergrad)
2. General UCF info: <https://finaid.ucf.edu/>
3. Travel awards (for presenting research at meetings)
  - SGA: <https://ucfsga.com/services/funding/>
  - Undergrad: <https://our.ucf.edu/forms/travel-award/>
  - Grad: <https://graduate.ucf.edu/presentation-fellowship/>

Other technical communication-related scholarships

1. Society for Technical Communication
  - <https://www.stc.org/scholarship/> (Undergrad/Grad)
2. SIGDOC: Association for Computing Machinery: <https://sigdoc.acm.org/awards/>
  - ACM-W Scholarships for Attendance at Research Conferences (Women)
  - ACM-SIGDOC Microsoft Student Research Competition
3. Other conferences also have conference travel awards/competitions